

Foundations: PRI and MRI Opportunities

Dione Alexander is Vice President, Midwest Region for Nonprofit Finance Fund (NFF). Established in 1980, NFF is one of the nation's leading community development financial institutions, specializing in financing and improving the financial health of social enterprises. Ms. Alexander directs lending, consulting services, and foundation and corporate relations throughout the Midwest United States. Prior to joining NFF, Ms. Alexander served as a business consultant under contract with the U. S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. Department of Defense, and Eastern Michigan University, President and CEO of a regulated revolving loan fund, Vice President, Comerica Bank, and Department Executive, Charter County of Wayne, MI, where she managed and financed economic development and environmental initiatives. Ms. Alexander is a graduate of the School of Business and Industry at Florida A & M University (B.S., Business Administration) and the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. Ms. Alexander serves on several the nonprofit boards and committees to include the Mission Driven Investment Committee of W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the loan committee of ShoreBank Enterprise Detroit, and Simon House. Development Corporation.